

My Trip to Denmark

August 30 2002.

I flew on an airplane, first to Iceland then to Denmark. When we went through the gateway in Copenhagen, most of my family was there. I was so happy to see them. We ate lunch at my grand parents house. I played soccer with my cousins. Now I am so tired I will go to bed.

Picture 1 Coast of Denmark

Picture 2 Welcome in Copenhagen Airport

September 2, 2202.

Today I went to the mall with my family. We went to a small restaurant and got something to drink. Next stop was a toy store called Fætter BR. Why I went to the toy store was because I had my birthday in America, so I got to pick my birthday gift from my grand parents. I chose two buses. Later my cousins and I played soccer and it was fun. When they were over we had pancakes , they were good.

Picture 3 Logo for BR

September 3, 2002.

I went to a tot lot and there were go-carts and there were lots of boys named Fredrik. I drove on a go-cart and put on a trailer. Then we drove by the house we lived in before we moved to US and took pictures of it. Then we bought a soccer ball for me and my brother and we also had an ice cream. When we came back we played with our new soccer balls. For dinner my grand dad made burgers on the grill.

Picture 4 Tot lot

Picture 5 My old house

Picture 6 The nearby lake

Picture 7 Horses next to my old house

September 5, 2002.

I went to the beach and ran around in the sand. Then we got in the water and swam out to deeper water. The second time I went in I saw a boat going fast and it made big waves, I swam through the waves and it was fun. On the beach I jumped from rocks and landed in the sand. I got an icecream and it was good. When we came home I still had lots of sand in my pockets.

Picture 8 Fun at the beach

September 8, 2002.

Today was a fun, fun, fun, fun day. I woke up and got my nice shirt and pants on. I styled my hair and then we drove to the church to have my baby brother christened. The priest put water on his head 3 times and said his name Nicolai Kevin Bakke. My baby brother slept through all that. We had a party for the whole family with good food and yummy deserts. It was a great day for all of us.

Picture 9 Nicolai's christening

September 10, 2002.

Today I went to an amusement park called Tivoli. I tried a roller coaster with my dad and it tickled a lot in my tummy. After that I had a cotton candy. I also tried a remote controlled boat, I sat in it and sailed in a little lake, I really liked that but it was hard to control. I tried lot of fun things and so did my parents and brothers.

Picture 10 Fun in Tivoli

September 12, 2002.

We drove to an old town called Sorø. We walked around and looked at old buildings and went to a lake and fed the ducks. Me and my brother had a picture taken next to a statue of king Frederik the 7th. He signed the danish constitution in 1849.

Picture 11 Me and king Frederik the 7th

September 13, 2002.

We drove to a town called Hillerød where my cousins live. Hillerød has a beautiful castle named Frederiksborg Castle and a lake that surrounds it. King Christian the 4th build the castle in 1736 and you can tour it from inside. But today I sailed in the lake while my parents walked around the lake.

Picture 12 Frederiksborg castle

Picture 13 Flight Route (Yellow line)

My poem: My Trip to Denmark

I played soccer with my cousins,
 It wasn't so bad,
 But when I had to leave,
 I felt kind of sad,
 For I'm going home to USA,
 But I'm looking forward to see them in one year and a day,
 But don't get me wrong,
 USA is where I belong,
 And when we get to summer 2003,
 I hope I will go back and visit my friends overseas.

Here are some coins from Denmark:

